The Powerpuff Girls are back! It's a very exciting time, indeed. Particularly since there is now a way for you to turn yourself into a Powerpuff person!

This studio is a collection of Puffified projects.

Check out powerpuffyourself.com to create your own!

and so I wondered...

How can we celebrate, rather than evaluate children's full creative and connected selves, and empower them to reflect on
and feel inspired by their own journey?

SCRATCH memories

Take a trip down your memory lane...

Let's go!

I was actually interested in voice acting, and I thought it'll be really cool to start my own series, but I didn't think I was able to, so I brushed it off. But then I heard my sisters playing this game in this imaginary world that all these characters live in, and I thought, wouldn't it be cool if I animated their story! So I got this idea and I worked for 3 weeks nonstop. It reflects my faith about Jesus and I decided to make a trailer to let everyone know about it. I have never been so satisfied at sharing a project than I had with the trailer.

I see some of my older projects with the older art, the older coding. And, I see my newer projects that I am proud of, really proud of. I can sort of see the change in all of them. I can see how I've improved and grown. It makes me think how much Scratch has helped me learn and grow with all these different skills, you know art and coding. For my very first project, I wasn't very good with art and now I'm really more confident and I enjoy it more, and coding, I'm more confident with that!

The more we help children to have their wonderful ideas and to feel good about themselves for having them, the more likely it is that they will someday happen upon wonderful ideas that no one else has happened upon before.

The Having of Wonderful Ideas - Eleanor Duckworth

THE GOAL OF SCRATCH MEMORIES IS TO...

help children feel proud about their own wonderful ideas so that they feel inspired to keep coming up with new ones!

Oh I made this
with my brother!

Oh what project was this?

Really!
Oh yeah!!
Really?

One Scratcher
remixed this project

Oh my goodness, the
That was
first project you
her remix!
favorited was hers!
thank you!

Thank you,
thank you!

I favorite that, I loved and favorite that.

I remixed that then you remixed it, and then another person remixed it.

...A FINAL MESSAGE

We need to care about...

WHAT CHILDREN VALUE.

WHAT IS VALUABLE FOR CHILDREN.

WHAT WILL MAKE CHILDREN FEEL VALUED.

TEŞEKKÜR EDERİM!
